

MUSTAFA AYDIN

Dr. Mustafa Aydın, born in 1956, completed his primary, middle and high school education in his birthplace, Trabzon. He continued his undergraduate education in Cairo University and Ankara University Language and History-Geography Faculty. Later, he completed his master and doctorate studies on linguistics. He started working in Turkish Armed Forces in 1975 and had various duties, both national and foreign, until he had retired in 1995. Following his retirement, Dr. Aydın started working as an academic member of Istanbul University while also simultaneously establishing many organizations with his investments in education sector under the roof of BİL Holding which he is the founder of.

He continues to provide education services with around 150 schools, from kindergarten to the end of high school, in around 40 BİL College campuses under the roof of BİL Educational Institutions he established in 1985.

On top of that, he laid the base of Turkey's biggest foundation university, Istanbul Aydın University in 2003; with 16 faculties, 34 Research Centers, 40000 students of which 5000 are international, 2 think-tanks, 2 UNESCO platforms and over 100 strong technological, information and laboratory infrastructures.

Moreover, he established IAU Incubation Center located in Silicon Valley – San Francisco/USA, as well as Cyprus Science University and International Aydın University in TRNC, in the next years.
